Sellers Guarantee:

- 1- AKC paper, pedigree & care instructions will be provided to buyer. Puppy is current with vaccinations and worming.
- 2- General health of puppy for 72 hours. Buyers should have their puppy checked by a veterinarian during this time.
- 3- Puppy is guaranteed against hereditary defects (including hip dysplasia & wobblers) for two years. If puppy is found to be defective by a veterinarian & that information is provided to sellers, sellers will replace puppy with one of equal quality & value from a future breeding. If buyers choose to keep said puppy, no replacement will be provided.
- 4- Our breeding stock is of good temperament. As temperament is influenced by environment (i.e. new home), breeder retains right to decide if a puppy with temperament problems will be replaced.

Buyers Agree:

- 1- Puppy must live in house. Puppy is to be kept on a leash or in a fenced yard when outside & not allowed to run loose.
- 2- Puppy shall have adequate food, water, medical care, and exercise and companionship. Don't overdue the exercise and don't allow rough play with another pet. The food should be of good quality with protein under 25%. Do not supplement except with Vitamin C or (in some cases) Pet Tabs.

- 3- All care costs (including vet expenses) are responsibility of buyer. Puppy should be kept current on vaccinations and heart worm medication.
- 4- Puppies sold as show prospects should be trained as such. This could include conformation classes and “fun” or “puppy” matches. Puppy should then be shown to its fullest potential. Show puppies should have health tests done at appropriate age.
- 5- Puppies sold as pets will have limited registration with AKC and should be neutered by one year of age. Puppy shall be well socialized.
- 6- All puppies will have “Northwind” as first word in AKC name.
- 7- If buyer is unable to keep and maintain puppy, the seller shall be notified and retain first option to take puppy back (with AKC paper).
- 8- Failure to comply with above may result in this guarantee becoming void.

We have read and agree to the above.
